Summary of Change:

This sentence is being removed because the Bylaws are being updated to eliminate all gender specific language. Since the text is being revised to use gender-neutral terms throughout, a clause instructing readers to interpret masculine pronouns as including the feminine or neuter is no longer necessary.

Existing Language	Proposed Language
Article II – Section 1. Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of members shall be held at such time and place within Coos or Curry County, State of Oregon, as shall be designated by the Board of Directors in the notice of the meeting for the purpose of electing Directors, passing upon reports covering the previous fiscal year and transacting such other business as may come before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a Sunday or legal holiday, such meeting shall be held on the next succeeding business day. If the election of Directors shall not be held on the day designated herein for any annual meeting or at any adjournment thereof, the Board of Directors shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members as soon thereafter as conveniently may be. Article II – Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the Board of Directors or upon written request signed by at least ten per centum (10%) of all the members and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the Board of Directors or upon written request signed by at least ten per centum percent (10%) of all the members and it shall thereupon be the duty of the Secretary to cause notice of such meeting to be given as hereinafter provided. Special meetings of the members may be held at any place within the counties of Coos or Curry in the State of Oregon and/or attended virtually as specified in the notice of the special meeting.

Fifty (50) members present in person or voting electronically or by mail shall constitute a quorum. If less than a quorum is present at any meeting, a majority of those present in person may adjourn the meeting from time to time to a date and a time certain without notice not achieved by the date specified on the ballot, the vote shall fail, no action shall be taken, and any position on the Board of Directors subject to vote shall be considered vacant and placed on the ballot for election at the next annual meeting. The minutes of each meeting shall contain a list of members present in person.

Summary of Change:

Revises language to reflect that a quorum need only be based on the number of votes received through the electronic and mail voting process, given that member meetings are informational in nature and all voting occurs through electronic and mail ballots.

Article III – Section 9. Emergency Powers

Existing Language	Proposed Language
	Article III – Section 9. Emergency Powers. Notwithstanding the requirements of Article IV, Section 4, in the event that a quorum of the Cooperative's directors cannot be readily assembled because of an emergency event, the available members of the board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of business during the time of such emergency to the extent authorized by law. All decisions made by less than a quorum of the board of directors during an emergency event that affect ongoing operations of the Cooperative shall be subject to review and ratification by the full board of directors when a quorum is reestablished.

Summary of Change:

Creates an emergency-powers provision allowing the available directors to temporarily constitute a quorum and take necessary actions during an emergency when a quorum cannot be assembled, with all such actions requiring later review and ratification once a full quorum is restored.

Article IV – Section 6. Consent in Lieu of Meetings

Existing Language	Proposed Language
	Article IV – Section 6. Consent in Lieu of Meetings. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action so taken is signed by all of the directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote at a meeting. The consent shall be filed with the minutes or proceedings of the Board.

Summary of Change:

Adds an explicit provision allowing the Board of Directors to take action without holding a meeting, provided all directors give written consent to such action, and that the written consents are filed with the official minutes or proceedings.
